

BEHAVIOUR SUPPORT POLICY

RATIONALE

Aim

A well behaved school is one in which there is a climate where pupils enjoy learning, participate in activities, can access the curriculum and achieve high standards, this engenders trust and co-operation that foster the desire to learn. The staff of this school aim to offer a secure, enjoyable learning environment where expectations are clear, and conflict is minimised so that everyone's self-esteem can be enhanced.

Our behaviour support policy will support these aims by:

- showing and encouraging respect and tolerance for each other and the school.
- valuing the contribution of each person in the team.
- working in partnership with parents/carers/governors to achieve our aim.

We believe that:

- the encouragement and reinforcement of good behaviour is a matter of collective responsibility.
- every pupil and adult has the right to feel safe and unthreatened by verbal or physical abuse.
- pupils and adults should be fully aware of the consequences of behaviour which is unacceptable.
- where pupil's understanding is limited, we will work towards encouraging greater understanding and awareness.

PURPOSES

PUPILS

We expect that pupils will:

- respect other pupils in the way that they talk and treat each other.
- show the same respect to adults.
- respect all property.
- look after one another by letting an adult know if they are worried about another child.

There is a Student Council which meets regularly to discuss school issues including behaviour.

STAFF

Staff have a vital role to play as they are at the forefront of behaviour management, and responsible for the behaviour of their pupils. They have the closest knowledge of the pupils in their care and will wish to build up a relationship involving mutual support, trust and respect. Remaining calm even in difficult situations is essential, de escalation may be achieved through clear and concise dialogue, use of symbols, or positive handling, shouting is not an option.

We expect that staff will:

- provide pupils with a good role model.
- provide pupils with a framework of behaviour which supports the whole school policy.

- positively reinforce examples of good behaviour, for example using the stars and merits system and individual class systems as well as verbal praise, stickers, certificates and other rewards as appropriate
- allow time for discussion about positive and negative behaviour.
- keep clear records of positive and negative behaviour as appropriate.
- keep parents fully informed about issues concerning behaviour either through the home/school diary, by letter, telephone or the Head Teacher depending on the circumstances.
- keep the school Governing Body informed regarding issues concerning behaviour management through the head teacher.
- acknowledge and value achievements at all levels.
- consistently apply the behaviour policy throughout the school.

PARENTS /CARERS.

We expect that parents will:

1. be involved and support us in helping to meet our aims.
2. feel confident that everything is being done to make sure that their child is happy and safe at school.
3. be informed about and fully involved in every aspect of their child's behaviour.

GOVERNORS.

We expect that governors will:

1. know that staff are constantly striving to provide a safe, happy and stimulating environment
2. be fully informed of matters concerning behaviour and significant positive handling incidents.
3. support the Head Teacher and staff in the implementation of this policy
4. play a full and active role in ensuring our aims are met

UNACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOUR.

Unacceptable behaviour is that which:

1. makes anyone in the school feel unhappy or threatened
2. prevents teachers from teaching and other pupils from learning
3. damages school property

PROCEDURES

REWARDS (see appendix 1)

When giving rewards to pupils we always make clear why we are rewarding with the intention of making the pupil properly aware and of sending signals to other pupils. We know that effective praise helps the pupil appreciate how his/her achievement is helped by his/her own attitude; it acknowledges effort, focuses attention on relevant behaviour and fosters intrinsic motivation. Rewards we give include:-

- approving look, nod, wink, smile.
- private praise.
- public praise.
- stars/merits.
- stickers.
- certificates.
- informing parents/guardians.
- displays and many more.

SANCTIONS (see appendix 2)

When dealing with misdemeanours we are conscious to always maintain a child's self-esteem and that it is the behaviour that is unacceptable never the child.

Wherever possible we encourage negotiated sanctions that match the offence. Therefore in discussion with the pupil we:

- check by asking the pupil that they understand why s/he is in trouble
- establish s/he knows the behaviour was unacceptable
- explore the effect that behaviour has on others
- examine strategies for avoiding the same situation in the future
- encourage pupils to think of or offer some alternative strategies
- problem solve

Initially these should be class-based:

- rewarding the positive behaviour of others
- teachers proximity to offender
- use of LSW to support / work with offender
- use of warnings (e.g. cards / names on board)
- time-out / moving offender
- class detention during break / lunch

Then school sanctions should apply:

- time out with LSW
- use of buddy system
- time out with Pastoral Care Team.
NB Please see appendix

Serious Incidents

- teacher needs to judge the level of danger (risk assessment) and act accordingly, (danger to child, others, staff, equipment, or buildings)
- remove pupil from situation or remove situation from the pupil if necessary
- get support if required
- allow offender (and staff) to calm down. Either use buddy class or telephone the reception office for support
- at end of session, speak to pupil and record incident on Sleuth, The Milestone Schools online behaviour recording/tracking system.
- pupil's parents informed
- should a pupil need further reinforcement a meeting with parents will be arranged

POSITIVE HANDLING.

Milestone staff are trained in using Team Teach positive handling techniques. The fundamental principle of Team Teach is de-escalation. Team Teach supports that positive handling should only be used as a last resort and when all de-escalation techniques have proved ineffective.

Team Teach training is designed to minimise risk and help people build and maintain positive relationships. Team-Teach training is affiliated to The General Services Association and its courses have been accredited (2006, 2009, 2012) by the British Institute of Learning Disabilities and The Institute of Conflict Management (2015).

Team Teach training is valid for 3 years

At The Milestone School, we have 2 members of staff who are intermediate tutors and deliver training courses on a monthly basis. Tutors receive refresher training every 12 months.

All members of school staff have the power to use reasonable force to:

1. restrain a pupil at risk of harming themselves through physical outbursts.
2. prevent a pupil from attacking a member of staff or another pupil, or to stop a fight in the playground;
3. remove disruptive children from the classroom where they have refused to follow an instruction to do so;
4. prevent a pupil behaving in a way that disrupts a school event or a school trip or visit
5. prevent a pupil leaving the classroom where allowing the pupil to leave would risk their safety or lead to behaviour that disrupts the behaviour of others;

(DFE circular Jan 2016 Behaviour and Discipline in Schools)

Reasonable force is using no more force than is necessary based on the individual child and circumstances

If positive handling is used, it must be reasonable, proportionate and necessary.

Despite creating the right environment, providing pastoral care and opportunities for counselling, the nature of some of our pupils means that there will be times when challenging behaviours occur.

In all cases where positive handling is necessary, minimum reasonable force should be used to exercise your 'duty care' to the pupils and should only be used as a last resort. Team Teach approved holds should be applied by trained staff. In the event of a physical attack on yourself, you have the right to defend yourself though withdrawing to a safe distance might be the best option whilst ensuring that other people are safe.

Positive Handling, which may be reasonably expected to be used at The Milestone School, will be either in the context of pastoral care or as an intervention in a challenging situation.

Positive Handling during challenging situations:

When using physical intervention, the minimum level of force required is the maximum permissible.

Appropriate Team Teach approved holds are named on Individual Behaviour Support Plan.

Team-Teach techniques seek to avoid injury to pupils, but it is possible that bruising or scratching may occur accidentally, and these are not to be seen necessarily as a failure of professional technique, but a regrettable and infrequent "side-effect" of ensuring that the pupil remains safe.

After physical intervention.

- the pupil should be given time and a safe place to recover his/her composure

- counselling, in terms of talking through what has happened, should be offered to both pupils and staff.
- the pupil should be supported in re-joining his/her class.
- where physical intervention has been used in challenging situations, this must be recorded on sleuth within 24 hours and parent/carer informed.

Episodes of challenging behaviour

In the event of outbursts of uncontrolled aggressive behaviour, every effort will be made to de-escalate the situation and calm the child. Future strategies for managing such behaviour will be planned after discussion between school and parents/carers and written into Individual Behaviour Support Plan.

Liaison with parents

Where a pupil is in danger of permanent exclusion possibly following several fixed term exclusions it may be necessary to arrange a series of meetings to review the child's behaviour and develop strategies for improvement. These will require the support of the LA and will therefore be part of a Pastoral Support Plan. Pastoral Care Manager to convene meeting with Parents, LA representative, Educational Psychologist, and Class Teacher as required. It is important that these meetings do not replace the Annual Review/EHCP process.

The PSP must have:

- precise and realistic behaviour to work towards
- targets broken down into fortnightly tasks
- rewards for meeting targets and punishment if certain behaviours occur
- an agreed length of time e.g. 16 working weeks
- a review at least halfway through

The pupil should be offered support from a Mentor or specialist support if appropriate.

The school may consider a managed move to a new school

Exclusions

Only the head or acting head may exclude when:

- a pupil has seriously broken the school's behaviour policy
- the school has tried other ways to improve a pupil's behaviour and these have failed.
- if a pupil stayed in school it would seriously harm the education and welfare of themselves or others.

The head will:

- give the pupil a chance explain what has happened.
- gather all the facts and use firm evidence, before exclusion.
- take into account the school's equal opportunities policy and any harassment of the pupil (racial or sexual)
- inform parents as soon as is practical (generally by phone) about the exclusion and their rights.

Within one school day the head will send a letter to parents clearly stating:

- the reason for exclusion.
- the date the exclusion starts and duration.
- how the pupil can continue their education arrangements for setting and marking work.
- their right to state their case to the discipline committee (and how), who to contact, and the final date for a written statement
- the phone numbers of someone in the LA who can advise you

The Head Teacher will arrange for the following to be informed:

Chair of Governors
Head of Department
Class Teacher
Pastoral Care Manager
Milestone Admin Staff
School Transport Department at Shire Hall
and complete exclusion form
File letters and forms
Add to Head Teacher's log

Following a period of exclusion parents/guardians will be asked to attend a re-admission meeting with the Head Teacher where behaviour targets will be discussed.

The maximum number of exclusions allowed in any one year is forty five days. Permanent exclusion is the final sanction but a managed move, through PSP/Annual Review, EHCP process to a new school is always the preferred option.

Prohibited Sanctions

The Children's Act 2004 specifically prohibits the use of the following:

- corporal punishment
- deprivation of food or drink
- the use or withholding of medication, medical or dental treatment
- intentional deprivation of sleep
- requiring pupils to wear distinctive or inappropriate clothing
- the restriction of visits or communication
- the use of accommodation to restrict physically the liberty of the child
- imposition of fines
- intimate physical searches

Searching without consent can be carried out for prohibited items within the parameters of the guidelines 'Prohibited items' are defined in the Education Act 1996 and the Schools Regulations 2012 as:

- knives or weapons.
- tobacco and cigarette papers.
- alcohol
- illegal drugs
- stolen items

APPENDIX 3

A Buddy System

This is based on a system of self-support of teachers by teachers. It is offered as an additional strategy to help in the management of behaviour.

The basic idea is for teachers to work in pairs to support each other with any difficulties that they may be experiencing.

This can range from a sympathetic colleague who is willing to listen and discuss alternative strategies to a place where a pupil who needs to be removed can be sent/taken. It can also be used as a positive reward for pupils. The key element is for the class teacher to remain in control of the situation, this empowers the teacher rather than giving a sense of failure.

The fine details of how this system is to be used is arranged between the individuals involved which has the added advantage of promoting communication between staff.

This arrangement is based on the theory that poor behaviour is often "situation specific" therefore teachers are paired across key stages to provide a different environment within the school situation. Only one pupil should be escorted to the buddy class during any one lesson.

The personal safety of all pupils is paramount and the support of the KSM / Behaviour Support should be sought for pupils with unpredictable / aggressive behaviour. A brief behaviour profile of class members should be provided by teachers for their Buddy.

This system has been set up as an additional strategy to be used by the teacher as and when they feel it useful and in a way that they have negotiated with their partner. It does not replace any of the current systems.

By supporting each other we enable the total support for the pupils to be more effective .

Buddy classes are also encouraged to develop social links to foster good relationships between both staff and pupils.

Malicious allegations against school staff:

Pupils that are found to have made malicious allegations are likely to have breached school behaviour policies. The school should therefore consider whether to apply an appropriate sanction, which could include temporary or permanent exclusion (as well as referral to the police if there are grounds for believing a criminal offence may have been committed).
